- 5.4. Effect of Termination. Upon termination of the Agreement, access to and use of the Software and all Services shall be terminated. Termination of the Agreement (i) shall not relieve any party from any liability that may have arisen prior to such termination, nor shall such termination (other than for termination by Customer under Section 5.2 above) relieve Customer of its obligation to pay all fees that have accrued or are otherwise owed by Customer under the Agreement, and any unpaid fees related to the initial term or any renewal term, and (ii) shall not limit either party from pursuing other remedies available to it, including injunctive relief. Upon any termination of the Agreement, DynaVox shall have the right to maintain a copy of all User Data in accordance with, and for the period of time it determines is required or permitted by, applicable law. 6. INDEMNITY, WARRANTIES, LIMITATION ON LIABILITY; REMEDIES

- 6.1. DynaVox Ownership; Infringement Indemnity.
 - 6.1.1. All computer programs and related Documentation made available, directly or indirectly, by DynaVox to Customer as part of the Services are the exclusive property of DynaVox or the third parties from whom DynaVox has secured the rights to such services or products.  - 6.1.2. DynaVox shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Customer from and against any and all suits, proceedings, claims, demands, or causes of action by a third party that the Software infringe upon or misappropriate any United States copyright, patent, trade secret or other intellectual or industrial property right of any kind or nature whatsoever (a "Claim").
 - 6.1.3. DynaVox shall have no liability under this Section 6.1 to the extent a Claim is attributable to (i) combination or use of the Software with any item, component, product, material, software or process not provided by DynaVox, if liability would not have arisen but for such combination or use with such item, component, product, material, software or process; (ii) use of the Software in any way not authorized nor contemplated by the Agreement, if liability would not have arisen but for such unauthorized use; or (iii) any breach by Customer of the Agreement, if liability would not have arisen but for such breach.

- 6.1.4. In the event the Software is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to, or is believed by DynaVox to, infringe or misappropriate any third party right, DynaVox shall have the option, at its expense, to (i) modify the Software to be non-infringing, (ii) replace the Software with a non-infringing substitute, (iii) resolve any Claim to allow use of the Software, (iv) obtain for Customer a subscription to continue using the Software, (v) terminate the Subscription for the infringing Software, or (vi) terminate the Agreement.
- 6.1.5. Reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Customer in providing such assistance will be reimbursed by DynaVox. Customer shall not settle or compromise any Claim, and any such settlement or compromise shall be void as against DynaVox and shall terminate DynaVox's obligation to indemnify Customer with respect to such Claim.
- 6.1.6. Customer acknowledges and agrees that the remedies provided in this Section 6.1 are the sole and exclusive remedies of Customer, and consequently the sole and exclusive liability of DynaVox, with respect to any Claim.

6.2. DynaVox Warranties; Time Period; Disclaimers.

- 6.2.1. Warranty for the Software and Services. Subject to Customer's compliance with its obligations under Section 4.2, DynaVox represents and warrants that the Software and Services will perform in all material respects in accordance with the Documentation provided by DynaVox within the Software, website, paper, or electronic copies of such Documentation. This warranty shall apply for a period of thirty (30) days following the Service Start Date, and any breach not reported within such period will be deemed waived and accepted by Customer.
- 6.2.2. Warranty for Other Services. DynaVox warrants that the Support Services, the Training Services and any other service set forth in an Order agreed to by Customer (excluding services contemplated by Sections 6.2.1) will be performed in a manner that is consistent with generally accepted industry standards for such Service. With respect to Training Services, DynaVox does not guarantee any specific results, and the results Customer may realize is primarily dependent on Customer's ability to utilize and implement ideas, concepts, and practices presented in the Training Services. Any breach not reported to DynaVox by Customer within thirty (30) days of its discovery will be deemed waived and accepted by Customer.
- 6.2.3. Disclaimers. THE WARRANTIES SET FORTH IN THIS SECTION 6.2 ARE EXCLUSIVE AND IN LIEU OF ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING ANY ORAL REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES MADE BY OR ON BEHALF OF DYNAVOX AND THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. DYNAVOX AND ITS SUPPLIERS DO NOT AND CANNOT WARRANT THE PERFORMANCE OR RESULTS YOU MAY OBTAIN BY USING THE SOFTWARE. DynaVox does not warrant that the Software will operate in the combinations that Customer may select for use, that the Software will meet Customer's requirements, that the operation of the Software will be uninterrupted or error-free, free of viruses or any other malicious code, or fit for its intended purpose, or that all Software errors will be corrected. Any description of the Software contained on DynaVox's website or promotional materials is for the sole purpose of identifying them, and any such description is not a part of the basis of the bargain and does not constitute a warranty or representation.

6.3. Exclusive Remedies. For any breach of the representations and warranties contained in Section 6.2, Customer's exclusive remedy, and DynaVox's entire liability, shall be as follows:

- 6.3.1. With respect to a breach of the representation and warranty set forth in 6.2.1, DynaVox shall correct the errors that caused DynaVox to breach its warranty to Customer.
- 6.3.2. With respect to a breach of the representation and warranty set forth in 6.2.2, DynaVox shall re-perform the applicable service.
- 6.3.3. With respect to the Warranties set forth in 6.2, if correction of the errors or re-performance of the applicable Service is not feasible or commercially reasonable, Customer may be entitled to some or all of the fees paid by Customer for such period of time as the applicable Software or Service was at issue.

6.4. Exculpation of Certain Claims; Limitation on Liability.

- 6.4.1. Customer shall be liable for (and Customer hereby waives any and all claims which Customer may have against DynaVox for), (i) any inaccuracy in User Data provided by Customer or its Users, (ii) the consequences of any instructions Customer may give to DynaVox, and (iii) Customer's failure to protect User account names and passwords. In addition, DynaVox is not responsible for (iv) Customer's access to the Internet, (v) interception or interruptions of communications through the Internet or (vi) changes or losses of data through the Internet.

6.4.2. Limitation of Liability. In no event shall DynaVox be liable under the Agreement for any indirect, incidental, special, consequential or punitive damages, or damages for business interruption, loss of profits, revenue, data or use, or cost of cover suffered by Customer or by any third party, whether in an action in contract or tort, and even if DynaVox has been advised of or is aware of the possibility of such damages. DynaVox's total liability for damages suffered by Customer or any of its affiliates under the Agreement or related to the Services shall in no event exceed an amount equal to three (3) times the average monthly fee paid by Customer to DynaVox under the Agreement.

6.4.3. This Section 6.4 sets forth the full extent of DynaVox's liability for damages resulting from this Agreement and the Services, regardless of the form in which such liability of claim for damages may be asserted. The provisions of the Agreement allocate the risks between DynaVox and Customer. The parties agree that DynaVox's pricing and other terms and conditions of the Agreement reflect the allocation of risk and the limitation of liability specified herein, and Customer acknowledges that without such limitation on liability and Customer's agreement to maintain redundant copies of all data provided to DynaVox in connection with the Services, DynaVox would not have entered into this Agreement.

7. PAYMENT PROVISIONS

7.1. Fees, Invoicing and Payment; Suspension of Service.

7.1.1. Customer shall pay the fees set forth on the Order (or any Addendum, as the case may be) for the Software and Services.

7.1.2. Invoices for payment of all Services shall be in accordance with the applicable Order agreed to by Customer. In the absence of specific provisions in the applicable Order agreed to by Customer, (i) fees for one-time Professional Services or Professional Development (e.g., set-up and Training Services) are due upon acceptance of any Order and prior to delivery of the applicable Service, (ii) recurring fees (e.g., fees for Services) begin on the Service Start Date, and if a monthly payment schedule, shall be payable no less than monthly in advance and due in full on the first day of each month, and (iii) fees that are variable and dependent on actual usage shall be billed monthly in arrears and due upon receipt.

7.1.3. Administrative Fees include, but are not limited to; (i) late charges for any invoice not paid by the applicable due date shall be charged for each 30 days thereafter that such invoice remains unpaid. Non-sufficient Funds checks or rejected ACH payments must be remitted within 5 working days after the Customer has been notified of the returned check or rejected ACH payment. The rejected amount and all future payments must be in the form of certified check or credit card. If, the NSF check or rejected ACH payment is not remitted within 5 working days, the Customer's access to, and use of, Software and Services will be terminated.

7.1.4. Without limiting the additional fees and charges that shall be payable by Customer pursuant to Section 7.1.3, if applicable, DynaVox shall have the right, exercisable in its sole and absolute discretion, to suspend Customer's access to, and use of, the Software and Services, in the event that Customer has not paid any amounts due hereunder by the time such payment is due.

7.1.5. Customer's payment obligations hereunder with respect to the Services may (if authorized by Customer) be made by direct withdrawal from Customer's bank account. In the event Customer has given such authorization, such withdrawal is subject to the operating rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association ("NACHA"). DynaVox and Customer each agree to be bound by and comply with the NACHA rules applicable to it with respect to such withdrawals. Any authorization given by Customer shall remain in effect unless and until revoked in writing by an authorized representative of Customer and until Customer's bank and DynaVox have each received such notice and have had reasonable time to act upon such notice.

7.2. Taxes. The fees listed in the Agreement (including the Order) do not include taxes; there shall be added to all payments hereunder amounts equal to any applicable taxes levied or based on this Agreement, exclusive of taxes based on DynaVox's net income. If DynaVox is found to be responsible for the withholding and payment of taxes on behalf of Customer, Customer agrees to indemnify DynaVox with respect to the full amount of taxes due, together with applicable interest and penalties. If Customer is required to withhold any tax from any payment, then the amount of the payment will be automatically increased to completely offset such tax so that the amount remitted to DynaVox, net of all taxes, equals the amount invoiced or otherwise due.

7.3. Variable Use Service Fees. Variable use service fees are subject to external costs (such as postage rates, paper, etc.) and therefore are subject to change with 30-day written notice to Customer.

- 8.1.1. All Confidential Information disclosed hereunder will remain the exclusive and confidential property of the disclosing party. The receiving party will not disclose the Confidential Information of the disclosing party and will use at least the same degree of care, discretion and diligence in protecting the Confidential Information of the disclosing party as it uses with respect to its own confidential information, but in no case less than reasonable care; provided, however, that DynaVox may disclose Confidential Information in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. The receiving party will limit access to Confidential Information to its affiliates, employees and authorized representatives with a need to know and will instruct them to keep such information confidential. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the receiving party may disclose Confidential Information of the disclosing party (i) to the extent necessary to comply with any law, rule, regulation or ruling applicable to it, (ii) as appropriate and with prior notice where practicable, to respond to any summons or subpoena or in connection with any litigation, and (iii) to any vendor with which DynaVox has an API (if Customer has elected to use such API).
- 8.1.2. Customer acknowledges that DynaVox or its affiliates may from time to time communicate directly with Customer for the purpose of marketing its products and services or those of its recommended vendors, and may use Confidential Information to do so.
- 8.1.3. The obligations of DynaVox set forth in this Section 8.1 shall not apply to any suggestions and feedback for product or service improvement, correction, or modification provided by Customer in connection with any present or future DynaVox product or service, and, accordingly, neither DynaVox nor any of its customers or business partners shall have any obligation or liability to Customer with respect to any use or disclosure of such information. In addition, subject to any limitations imposed by HIPAA, if applicable, Customer hereby consents to DynaVox's use of internet/website analytics software tools and programs that collect, transmit, store, disclose and analyze certain information about the actual use of the Software by Customers and/or Users (such as, but not limited to, pages viewed, links clicked, functions used and other workflow information), and such information shall not be considered Confidential Information hereunder and may be used by DynaVox for the purpose of license administration, error resolution and product analysis and improvement.
- 8.2. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution. The Agreement, and all matters arising out of or relating to the Agreement, shall be governed by the internal substantive laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania excluding its conflicts of law provisions. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to the Agreement, or breach thereof, shall be submitted to the following procedure: (i) direct negotiation in a settlement conference to be scheduled as soon as possible after the dispute arises; (ii) if no resolution is reached within sixty (60) days of the settlement conference, the parties will submit the dispute to non-binding mediation in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania under the mediation rules of the American Arbitration Association; and (iii) if no settlement is reached within sixty (60) days of the start of mediation, either party may seek legal redress in a forum of competent jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the above, neither party shall be prevented from seeking immediate injunctive or other equitable relief in connection with any breach of the confidentiality or ownership provisions set forth herein.
- 8.3. Notice. Customer agrees to notify DynaVox of any changes to Customer's business address, business contact, and support contact within ten (10) days of any change thereto. All notices required or permitted hereunder shall be given in writing or as specifically set forth in the applicable section of the Agreement. To expedite order processing, Customer agrees that DynaVox may treat documents emailed or faxed by Customer to DynaVox as original documents; nevertheless, either party may require the other to exchange original signed documents to evidence an order for Services.
- 8.4. Other Terms.
- 8.4.1. The waiver by either party of any default or breach of the Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of any other, or subsequent, default or breach.
- 8.4.2. Except for actions for nonpayment or breach of DynaVox's proprietary rights in the Software, no action, regardless of form, arising out of the Agreement may be brought by either party more than thirty (30) days after the cause of action has accrued.
- 8.4.3. The Agreement constitutes the complete agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous agreements or representations, written or oral, concerning the subject matter of the Agreement.
- 8.4.4. DynaVox may assign this Agreement or any rights or obligations under the Agreement to a third party. Customer may not assign the Agreement or any rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of DynaVox, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; any such assignment without the prior consent of DynaVox shall be void. DynaVox may use subcontractors to perform Services under this Agreement; provided, however, that such subcontracting shall not relieve DynaVox from responsibility for performance of its duties hereunder.
- 8.4.5. DynaVox has no obligation to any third party by virtue of this Agreement.
- 8.4.6. If any of the provisions of the Agreement shall be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not invalidate or render unenforceable the entire Agreement, but rather the parties hereto agree to replace such invalid or unenforceable term or provision with a valid and enforceable term or provision that will achieve, the fullest extent possible, the economic, business and other purposes of the Agreement.

- 8.4.7. Customer acknowledges and agrees that calls to and from DynaVox may be monitored or recorded.
- 8.4.8. DynaVox may modify or amend the terms of the Agreement between the parties, including these Terms of Service and any incorporated Order, upon written notice, e-mail or otherwise, to Customer. Following any such notification, Customer shall have the right for a period of thirty (30) days from receipt to inform DynaVox in writing that it does not accept the modification or amendment of the Agreement. If Customer does not notify DynaVox in writing that it does not accept such modification or amendment within such thirty (30) day period, and continues to access and use the Software and/or receive the Services, this shall be deemed agreement by the Customer to the modification or amendment. If Customer properly notifies DynaVox that it does not accept the new terms within the thirty (30) day period, then Customer may continue to access and use the Software until the end of Customer's then-current term, at which time the Agreement, and Customer's access to and use of the Software and its receipt of Services, shall terminate.
